

Khaled Bohsali

Khaled BOHSALI is a seasoned business strategist with more than 34 years of professional experience in banking, finance, and systems design and development. His expertise extends to hands-on audit engagements, fraud examinations, and digital forensics investigations.

Currently, he serves as the Executive Director of the Foreign Affairs Department at the Central Bank of Lebanon, a decision-support position offering an exceptional perspective on the financial system, monetary policy, and regional economies.

Khaled holds an MBA degree from the University of Liverpool and a DES degree in banking from Saint Joseph University (USJ), along with three certificates of specialty from the École Nationale d'Administration (ENA) in Paris. He has also earned six professional certifications (CISA, CISM, CFE, CIA, CRMA, CDPSE) in the fields of Auditing, Information Security, Fraud Examination, Risk Management Assurance, and Data Privacy.

Khaled is the founding president of the JCI Lebanon Chapter (Junior Chamber International, a worldwide federation of young leaders and entrepreneurs), the membership director of the ISACA Lebanon Chapter (Information Systems Audit and Control Association), an active member of the IIA Central Penn chapter (Institute of Internal Auditors), and the founder of the ACFE Lebanon Chapter (Association of Certified Fraud Examiners).

Moreover, he is a Rotarian, has served as the district 2452 chair for Economic and Social Development for 2022-2023, and is a Paul Harris Fellow.
